Per G.S.SINGHVI, CJ

In this petition, the petitioner has prayed for issue of a mandamus to respondent Nos. 1 and 2 not to allow respondent No.3 to raise illegal construction on the plot adjacent to her property bearing municipal No.11-5-162/1 situated at Red Hills, Nampally, Hyderabad.

On 20-4-2007, notice was issued to respondent Nos. 1 and 2 and Shri R. Ramachandra Reddy, learned Standing Counsel for the Municipal Corporation was requested by the Court to summon the file relating to construction being made by respondent No.3.

Today, Shri R. Ramchandra Reddy produced the relevant file and made an oral statement that the pillars raised by respondent No. 3 in violation of the sanctioned plan have been removed and he has been warned not to raise further construction in violation of the sanctioned plan.

Learned counsel for the petitioner agrees that the illegal construction raised by respondent No.3 has been demolished.

In view of the above, the writ petition is disposed of as infructuous with liberty to the petitioner to file fresh petition or avail any other appropriate remedy if, in future, respondent No.3 raises illegal construction.

As a sequel to disposal of the writ petition in the manner indicated above, WPMP No. 10701 of 2007 filed by the petitioner for interim relief is disposed of as infructuous.
